

Barbara Colbaugh Becomes Bride Of Claude Brand at Baptist Church

Miss Barbara Colbaugh, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Colbaugh, 7701 Walker St., became the bride of Claude Brand on March 17 at the Baptist church. Rev. Ernest Wright, pastor of the church, officiated in the six o'clock rites, in the presence of only the members of the bride's immediate family.

The bride wore a tailored suit of navy blue gabardine with matching accessories, accented by a corsage of pink carnations centered with a white gardenia.

A reception for members of the family was held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dohm, 7942 Court St. The beautiful wedding cake had been made by Mrs. Dohm.

The bride, a graduate of Centra elementary school and Anaheim high school, is an employee at Knott's Berry farm. Her husband received his education in New Orleans, La., and is a member of the U. S. Marine corps at El Toro.

Mr. and Mrs. Brand are living in an apartment at 7941 Court St.

A shower of articles for her new home was given for the bride at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Douglas, 8682 Holder Rd., a few days before the wedding.

Invited to go out with the Douglasses, the unsuspecting guest of honor was greatly surprised to find a room full of friends gathered to wish her happiness and present her with gifts.

With Mrs. Ben Franklin as co-hostess, Mrs. Douglas served refreshments of assorted sandwiches, lemon chiffon pie, punch, tea and coffee at the close of a delightful evening.

Those present were the honoree's mother and sisters, Mrs. Gladys Colbaugh and Misses Margaret and Ruby; her aunts, Mrs. Elmer McWilliams and Mrs. Calvin Dohm; Mmes. Lois Story, Erma Scott, Bonnie Williams, Mary Hutcheson, Maud Hutcheson, Bonnie Morgan, Pauline Akers, Lucie Siems, Edith Doss, Betty Hansen, and the bride's cousin, Miss Marilyn Dohm.

Gifts were sent by Mrs. Verne Caballera, Mrs. Delia Lallicker, Mrs. Evelyn Alvey, Mrs. Ethel Shear, Mrs. Ruth Abplanalp, Mrs. Uvalda Russell, Mrs. Helen Rogers and daughter.

Frannice Harvey Two Years Old; Given Party

Although it was her second birthday, little Frannice Harvey celebrated with her first birthday party last Sunday afternoon, when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Harvey, 5551 Danny Ave., entertained for her. Last year the important day found her confined at home with the measles.

A long table was attractively arranged with a tablecloth picturing pink and blue two-decker birthday cakes which matched the real one placed in the center of the table. The very small guests were served ice cream with the cake, and given colorful balloons and Easter basket favors. They also were given pink and blue hats to wear which added further merriment to the gay affair.

Frannice opened her many lovely gifts following the party refreshments.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miels and children, Amy and Robert; Mrs. C. A. Thorsen and children, Jack, Lynn and Pamela; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Deverell and daughter Dianna, of Anaheim; Mrs. M. W. Parker and daughter, Terry Lee; Erna, Verna, Louella and Barbara Krell; Shirley, Larry, Patty and Carol France and Gerry Alleman.

Sending a gift but unable to be present was Susan Gallagher, of Anaheim.

Mrs. Irene Santhof is recovering at home from a fall in which she injured her ankle. After about two weeks at home, she was able to get up town last Friday.

Reveal Betrothal Of Claire Davis

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Davis of 120 So. Pritchard St., Fullerton, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Claire La Rue Davis, to Mr. William A. Hund, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F.

Miss Claire La Rue Davis

Hund of 5902 Western Ave., Buena Park.

The bride-elect is a student of the senior class of Fullerton Union High school, and her fiancé was a member of the class of 1948 at Fullerton High, and is an employee of the Buena Park News.

The wedding bells will ring for the happy couple in the latter part of June.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Berg and son, Bobby, have moved to 9092 south Watson street from Anaheim. He is employed in Long Beach.

Frequent dinner guests in the Stan Doerr home during spring training in Fullerton were Angel teammates Stan Spence and Ken Gables.

Mr. and Mrs. Abe Fien and sons Bobby, Billy and "Butch" and baby daughter Patricia Ann moved Monday from 9592 Juanita St. to 5263 Orangethorpe Ave.

E. R. Wright is improving at his home, 8552 La Homa St., having returned from Fullerton General hospital last Friday.

Former Buena Park Girl Weds Navy Man in Rites at Las Vegas, Nevada

Miss Charlotte Larsen, daughter of Mrs. H. C. Larsen of Bellflower, and George C. McClure were married in Las Vegas, Nevada on March 20, 1950. They were accompanied by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Sedia of Cypress.

The bride has many friends in Buena Park where she spent her girlhood and attended school.

Her husband, whose home was in Memphis, Tennessee, is stationed at the Naval Reserve Station at Los Alamitos where he is a yeoman first class.

Mr. and Mrs. McClure are residing at Cypress.

Mrs. William D. Howard, wife of the local pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, attended a retreat for pastors' wives last week in Redondo Beach. Theme for the interesting session was in the manner of the south sea islands, and guests received flower leis.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Leffler and son Clayton, Jr., and daughters Roxie and Priscilla, decided to return to Cypress to make their home after a two weeks sojourn in Phoenix, Arizona. The family will live at 4292 Lincoln Ave., the same place they have in the past.

TO BE AFRAID OF

For grown ups, too, crossing even a familiar room can be a trip through strange territory—in the dark. So light is your best companion, wherever you go.

Properly located switches keep you safe from bumps and falls. They eliminate that blind and helpless groping for the switch. Multiple control switches will keep light ahead of you, so you'll never have to enter a dark room or hallway.

You'll be interested, too, in the other advantages of multiple switches. They permit you to control lights from several points—saving steps, and saving electricity, too. Be sure your home plans include the types of switches you want, and where you want them. They will help you to enjoy more of the benefits that electricity is bringing to your home. ## School News

Cypress Elementary School

Important Coming Events at School

School Easter vacation begins Saturday, April 1. School will be resumed Monday morning, April 10.

Thursday, April 6. Cub Scouts' monthly pack meeting, at 7:30 o'clock.

Wednesday, April 12. Community club's spaghetti dinner in utility room.

Thursday, April 12. P.T.A. meeting at 7:30 in auditorium. Stresses Public Schools' week.

Monday, April 17. P.T.A. will present a household arts demonstration to be given at two o'clock in the utility room by representatives from the county.

Thursday, April 20. Real Indian Chief Chibiaboos, of the Chippewa tribe, will present a program for the primary grades. This will be held outdoors for both morning and afternoon classes, weather permitting.

Thursday, April 27. Eighth grade play, "Black Widow."

Boy Scout News

By Joe Cram, 6-A

Next Saturday, April 1, the Boy Scouts are going to Irvine Park for a camporee. Scouts from all over Orange county will be there. The boys are camping outside and will be graded on their packs, their uniforms and camps. Troop awards will be made. Mr. Troutman would like to have as many attend as possible. We hope that many will have their uniforms by then.

Girl Scout News

By Rosalie Miller, 6-A

There will be a cookout Thursday, April 6, at 4:30 for the sixth grade Girl Scouts. They will meet at Mrs. Gile's house. The girls will bring their own food. They are working on the cook badge and this is one of the things to do to earn it. We know the girls will have a good time. Tuesday, March 28 the girls made something for Easter for their mothers and fathers. The girls are looking forward to next Thursday.

BASEBALL

By Billy Kelliker, 6-A

As I was standing on first base
The batter hit a liner,
It hit me squarely in the face
And now I have a shiner.

As I was standing up at bat
Coach gave me the single sign,
The pitcher threw it nice and fat
And it went down first base line.

EASTER

Easter morn will soon be here
Bringing thoughts with lots of cheer;
Balmy skies with clouds aglow,
Purple mountains topped with snow.

Easter bunnies come to town
Hiding eggs all around;
Easter lilies pure and white
Fill our hearts with sheer delight.

A SAD EASTER BUNNY

By Beatrice

I had a little dream last night,
I dreamed I saw hopping with fright

A little bunny so tiny and small
I could just barely see him at all

As he was sunning he tripped and fell

And he knew by Easter he wouldn't be well

I could hear him groan and hear him sigh

Gee how I hate to pass them
by

For I know they have been their very best

And I am sure they would like some eggs for their nest.

Dinner Party Double Celebration

Because their birth anniversary dates are close together, Mrs. Glenn Hubbard honored her husband and mother-in-law at a dinner last Monday evening. Glenn Hubbard's birthday is March 21 and Mrs. A. R. Hubbard, of Manhattan Beach, observes hers March 26. The hostess chose Monday evening since she is free of her duties in the dress shop at Knott's on that day.

The dining room was tastily bedecked with spring flowers and lighted candles, instead of placing the latter on the birthday cake served in honor of the two.

Canasta was played during the evening, and Mrs. Hubbard was presented with a canasta cover as a gift.

Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Botiller, of Inglewood.

Costs of Road Work To College Site Near Here Considered

The county this week considered costs of improving two roads to a West Fullerton site, about a mile from Buena Park, proposed to be acquired and given to the state, if it will build a $15,000,000 four-year state college to serve this county and southeast Los Angeles county.

Now located temporarily in Long Beach, the college soon will be moved to a permanent site—where it will be is still undecided.

Fullerton has bid for the location and this site, near Brookhurst road and a half mile north of Commonwealth Avenue, is proposed to be acquired by means of a bond election for $425,000 to purchase the land, lay sewer lines and do street work.

County improvement of west Malvern avenue to the city's west limit and the extension of north Nicholas over the hills to Imperial highway, where it would link with Hiatt street, La Habra, also is proposed. Highway Superintendent Harold Sprenger reported estimates Tuesday to the board of supervisors, it was reported.

Cramped for Space Try a Modern

HOUSES, new or remodeled, often lack safe storage space. Thus homemakers everywhere are using the new highly-styled cedar chests to fill this need. The young homemaker (above) uses her cedar chest as a bedroom dressing table. Blankets are safe from moths in the chest, while the bottom drawer is ideal for bed linens. The modern cedar chest (right) will harmonize with blonde furniture so popular this year. Two drawers in its base provide space for linens used for daily dining. The traditional cedar chest (below) is ever in favor with home owners. Designed with ball and claw feet, this chest also has an additional drawer in its base to provide extra room for items used occasionally.

Family Honors

Mrs. A. Kopsho

When Mrs. Albert Kopsho, Sr. celebrated the anniversary of her birth date last Sunday, March 26, her family gathered around to make the day a pleasant one.

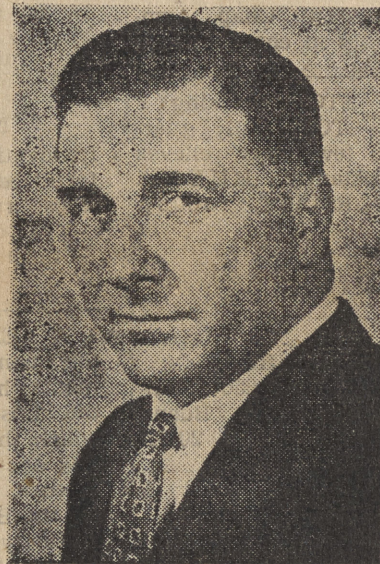

Beginning with a dinner following the opening of her presents, games were played until late in the evening, when refreshments were served before the guests departed.

Present were her husband, Albert Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kopsho, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kopsho and daughter, Laura Jean; Miss Helen Kopsho, Sgt. Thomas Kemock, of McClellan field army air corps, and Pete Mezar.

R. I. (Cuba) Morris Announces for Sheriff's Office

One of Orange County's best-known law enforcement officers, R. I. (Cuba) Morris of Corona del Mar, today announced that he will be a candidate for sheriff of Orange County in the June 6 primaries.

Although Morris has been a member of the California Highway Patrol since 1942, he has become better known in the last few years for his work in accident prevention and his efforts toward reduction of juvenile crime. Morris not only has addressed thousands of persons at school and civic meetings, but also was a sponsor of the new Legislative action which makes driver education mandatory in high schools.

Many police authorities and high officials throughout the state have lauded Morris' work with young drivers as "the most farsighted step we have seen in law enforcement circles in many years."

Orange County backers of Morris for Sheriff have said the veteran officer would bring to the county office a keen understanding of criminal investigation, a finely developed organizational ability and the executive capacity which such an office badly needs.

A law enforcement officer for 18 years, Morris began his career with the Newport Beach police force and in 1942 joined the Highway Patrol.

In making his announcement of candidacy today, Morris said: "This fact must be understood and appreciated throughout Orange County if I am to be elected. I do not have the backing or support, either moral or financial, of any organization or group in the county or state. It also must be understood that, when I enter the Sheriff's office, I will owe only one debt. That will be a debt to Orange County's citizens to whom I have promised just, fearless, and energetic enforcement of all the laws for all the people."

Morris is married and the father of three children, the eldest 15. He served with distinction as president of the Orange County Peace Officers' Association, is affiliated with the Elks Lodge and the Masons.
